Hi there "fastbuck",

Interested only in "getting on and off stage and finding a broad afterward".

Why ain't ("haven't got too many college graduates doing comedy") you out there "making a stament of pricking consciences"?

Can I have a better source than The Only One?

Of course, it doesn't mean anything that I was at your motel when you were here and saw no broad. After all, is it not an all-girl's college you addressed?

Broad. Hmmm. Maybe I should send Gloria Steinem or Flo Kennedy a copy?

I'm not very funny. I'm happier when Kissinger is flying. It's when he's not that there's trouble.

I'm not "intellectual", either, I guess, because Mort is telling me that I don't know what Pricking consciences" is.

And all the time I thought I did.

Goes to show.

Best regards,
